COURSE INFORMATION

Part 3 Course

The Australian Society of Anaesthetists (ASA) invite you to sponsor the Part 3 Trainee course

We are pleased to once again confirm the integral Part 3 course in the trainee calendar for 2019. The various State Trainee Representatives are putting together course programs to assist in preparing trainees to transition to independent specialists. Sponsorship of the course will give you access to the delegates enabling you to foster connections with these future leaders in anaesthetics, as well as the opportunity to align your brand with the Australian Society of Anaesthetists (ASA).

The course is promoted to all fourth and fifth year trainees who are members of either the ASA or the Australian and New Zealand College of Anaesthetists (ANZCA). We are expecting between 20-40 delegates at each course depending on the state. Maximum of six sponsors per course (not industry exclusive).

Introduction to the course

The Part 3 course is a full day of educational lectures targeted at trainees who have just completed their Part 2 exam and are to become consultant anaesthetists. It is an interactive day that covers professional and continuing medical education issues.

Topics of focus may include:

- The transition from Registrar to Specialist Anaesthetist
- Private practice – the how and why?
- The importance of a continuing education program
- Business management, financial planning and accounting
- Medical indemnity and risk management
- The welfare of anaesthetists – looking after yourself so you can care for others.

Course overview

The course is a full day of sessions, exhibition/display space and a networking session at the conclusion of the day. The program includes morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea/networking.
